

Hammered Paktong Briquettes

Extraordinarily glamorous, these lustrous Paktong Briquettes are from De Ferranti's 'Alchemy' Collection.

The briquettes have a surface of hand-patinated Paktong Silver. This is bonded to a marine ply base, making the tiles easy to install on walls or floors.

Also in De Ferranti's ultra-luxurious Alchemy collection are briquettes in Brass, Bronze and Copper. Tiles in different metals can be used together to create patterns.

Bespoke sizes and finishes are available to order.
