

Bronze Brogue

Inspired by English brogue shoes, these astonishing Bronze Briquettes are from De Ferranti's 'Alchemy' Collection.

The briquettes have a surface of patinated Brass (bronzed) with a embossed brogue border to its outer edge. Tiles are bonded to a marine ply base, making the tiles easy to install on walls or floors.

Also in De Ferranti's ultra-glamorous, ultra-luxurious Alchemy collection are briquettes in Brass, German Silver and Copper. Tiles in different metals can be used together to create patterns.

Bespoke sizes and finishes are available to order.
